FROM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, KELLY ANDERSON

This annual report attempts to summarize in a few pages all that the Rape Crisis Center accomplished in 2010, and to recognize the dedicated volunteers, staff and donors who made it all possible.

While there's not room here to fully celebrate all the amazing, life-changing programs that RCC offered during the year, we offer more detail on our website. And we can let you know that these services will continue, in 2011 and beyond, in the face of increasing needs and devastating budget cuts.

We know that we must continue this work because the victims of sexual violence are counting on us... and we know that we can continue this work because of the incredible community of support listed here. With tremendous appreciation for all the concern and commitment that we're able to rely on,

Kelly

Rape Crisis Center's Services 2010

RCC volunteers and staff answered more than 1,800 calls on our 24 hour crisis line (251-RAPE).

RCC advocates provided over 380 accompaniments to support victims at the emergency room, police station, and courtroom.

RCC reached over 5,300 people with Community Education presentations.

RCC volunteers provided over 4,900 hours of crisis line coverage.

RCC counselors provided free counseling to over 260 women, men and teens harmed by sexual violence.
